TOUR ARTIST BIO:

The Graffiti Village tour is a powerful combination of Seattle's most talented up and coming and cutting edge artists and community activists traveling the Western US. Ranging from hip hop music, visual artwork, fashion design, and high quality videography, the team seeks to build a strong brand with Indie Genius Media, an emerging independent media company and music label based in Seattle, Washington. With an indigenous lens coming from the perspective of voices unheard, this tour offers a unique experience to tap into the pulse of the people. Follow the Movement.

"Ari Glass is set up to become the next big name in visual art in Seattle. Judging by his trajectory, he'll be the biggest thing in modern art since Basquiat."
(City Arts, Seattle 2016)

"All it took was two songs to get hooked to Jamil Suleman... Upon hearing these tracks, his name will skyrocket in your mind."
(D List Magazine, Top 10 Artists on the Come Up 2015)
