

• JAMIL SULEMAN •

• HIP HOP ARTIST - SEATTLE, WASHINGTON •

SEATTLE'S RAW NEW TALENT...

ARTIST BIO:

Jamil Suleman is a raw and passionate storytelling lyricist, educator, and community organizer with a knack for the clever and his eyes on the future. Songs like "Curry-NA-Hurry" and "Dear White Folks" has made him a staple in his hometown of Seattle, Washington, and now he seeks to utilize his skills to spread a message of positivity and possibility through his music, videos, blogs, and work in the community.

"All it took was two songs to get hooked on this dude. His "Dear White Folks" and "Brendaz Baby" are expertly crafted and evidence of tight, powerful lyricism. Upon hearing these tracks, his name will skyrocket in your mind."

- D List Magazine (Top 10 Artists on the come-up)

VENUES PLAYED:

Seattle - Neumos, Crocodile, Vermillion, Chop Suey, University of Washington

FEATURED IN:

Seattle Times, Food & Wine, All Def Poetry, The Stranger (Seattle), KIRO Radio, KEXP Public Radio, D List Magazine

UPCOMING PROJECTS:

With his upcoming EP, "ARAYA" featured on the Graffiti Village Tour, Jamil is set up to take his music and movement to the national scale and beyond.

To Book Jamil Suleman for an upcoming show, visit:
www.JamilSuleman.com

Facebook/Twitter/Instagram:
@JamilSuleman

• INDIE GENIUS MEDIA •

